

Please BLOCK the Consumer Banking Association (CBA) from challenging the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. This would allow too many unwanted telephone calls to Indiana residents over an 18 month period. Indiana's telephone privacy law has been a blessing to all Indiana residents and now is not the time to go back to square one.

Thank you